

Mauricio Armendáris CARRASCO

E C U A D O R

HÔ I AN INTERNATIONAL

FOOD
Festival

About Mauricio Armendáris Carrasco

Mauricio became the founder of the Association of Chefs of Ecuador 15 years ago. He studied in the United States at the Culinary Institute of America and later obtained a certificate in Ecuador in Food and Beverage Business Administration. He works on several publications and has won both national and international awards.

Some of his achievements include:

- Continental Director of the Organization of Gastronomic Associations of the Americas and the Caribbean
- Director of the Culinary Tourist Destinations Project
- Member of the Regional Center's Research Center (CEINCOR).
- He directs the coordination of the national plan for development of patrimonial kitchens in Ecuador
- Academic coordinator of Culinary Art's School
- Speaker for Ecuador in several international events including the Second Congress of Patrimonial Kitchens, organized by UNESCO
- Honorary member of the Culinary Academy of the United States
- Member of the Culinary Academy of France
- Ecuador representative for the World Association of Chefs (WORLDCHefs)
- Gastronomic and technical consultant specializing in culinary tourism projects.