

Wan Chung SY

SOUTH KOREA

HÔI AN INTERNATIONAL

FOOD
Festival

About Wan Chung Sy

Chef Professor Wan Chung Sy (aka Bill W. C. Sy) has served as the Culinary Director of Culinary Arts and Management at the Art Institute for the last twenty years, and was inducted to the Hall of Fame of the American Academy of Chefs and received honours at the American Culinary Federation in 2015. He has earned many awards including Chef of the Year, Educator of the Year and Lifetime Achievement to name but a few. He has been dedicated as an Approved Judge of WACS, judging international competitions in many cities and countries and supporting young chefs over the last ten years. He has been invited to lecture at many colleges and universities in Asia and has written many articles on culinary education and competitions in the media. He is a highly regarded educator in the US and abroad.

Some of his achievements include:

- Senior Professor, The Art Institute of Phoenix, Arizona (USA)
- Hall of Fame, American Academy of Chefs, American Culinary Federation
- Senior Director, Culinary Arts and Management, The Art Institute of Tucson (retired)
- Master Diploma of Israel, Brazil and Korea
- WACS Assessment Team
- ACF (American Culinary Federation National Chair of Education Committee-retired)
- WACS Approved Judge
- Certified Executive Chef, American Culinary Federation
- Educator of the Year, ACF Western Region
- Hermann Rusch Lifetime Achievement, ACF Western Region
- Chef of the Year, ACF Phoenix Chapter
- President, ACF Phoenix Chef Association (retired).